About the Hyperdimension Neptunia series

“Hyperdimension Neptunia” is a series of RPGs setting place in a paradox world called Gamindustry. The games feature powerful Goddesses and their friends who embody different generations of game consoles. In the very first Neptunia, the player takes on the role of the main protagonist Neptune, one of four goddesses involved in a long series of conflicts known as the Console Wars.

Turn-based System With A Free Roaming Style Battlefield

When the player's turn comes around you are able to move your characters freely within their moving range. The character's attack range will depend on the weapons equipped and by the skills they have. Players will have to strategically place their characters to effectively defeat their enemies.

New, Returning, and Collaboration Characters

There will be new and returning characters, along with collaboration characters and story with various video game developers like Bandai Namco, MarvelousAQL, CyberConnect2, Broccoli, Falcom.

Truly Unique Storyline

Hyperdimension Neptunia Re;Birth1 offers a joke-filled storyline that pokes fun at the gaming industry. Each collaboration character is a personified version of the “actual” company it represents. Enjoy in-game English & Japanese voices.
